

Disaster Tip Sheets & Trainings for U.S. Religious Leaders

In May 2011, NDIN launched the Be a Ready Congregation campaign. Key to this campaign are our "Disaster Tip Sheets for U.S. Religious Leaders." Each Tip Sheet offers all-hazards best practices and resource links about U.S. disaster mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery – specifically of relevance to religious leaders, faith communities, and faith-based organizations. NDIN offers trainings based on these tip sheets.

Because U.S. religious leaders are among the first and most trusted sources of risk-communication and effective response in the houses of worship, neighborhoods, and faith communities where they serve, they have an important role when disasters strike. These Tip Sheets aim to educate and assist these leaders and their congregations as they prepare to serve and respond in effective, inclusive, and compassionate ways.

ABOUT NDIN DISASTER TIP SHEETS:

NDIN Tip Sheets are based upon a smaller set that was originally developed to assist New York City faith communities following 9/11. The NDIN “Disaster Tip Sheets for U.S. Religious Leaders” have been developed to assist religious leaders in any community. Appropriate for any faith tradition, they address all-hazards planning and cover topics from across the entire disaster lifecycle. Written by subject matter experts and based on established best practices, each Tip Sheet provides key information on mitigation education and preparedness training for religious leaders on how their houses of worship can respond to crises, including how to coordinate volunteers, manage donations, provide mass care, attend to spiritual and mental health needs, and continue their many religious and social services post-disaster and throughout the recovery process.

As part of the NDIN Be a Ready Congregation campaign, NDIN will regularly release new Tip Sheets and other best practices and resource tools. Please monitor our website or register for iNET, our free monthly e-newsletter, to learn more about new releases.

DISASTER TIP SHEET ORIENTATION & TRAINING COURSES FOR U.S. RELIGIOUS LEADERS, FAITH COMMUNITIES & THEIR PARTNERS

NDIN also offers both a Tip Sheet Orientation and a Tip Sheet Training Course - as well as other trainings. These trainings are designed to orient religious leaders and their emergency management or disaster public health and mental health partners to faith-based disaster human services best practices.

For more information, or to arrange for NDIN to speak at a training or offer a training in your community, contact us at info@n-din.org.

Disaster Tip Sheet Orientation (One-two hours)

The NDIN Tip Sheet Orientation provides an overview of the series, introducing religious leaders to the basics of the disaster lifecycle, leadership roles for religious leaders in times of crisis, and a broad spectrum of mitigation, preparedness, relief and recovery topics, a basic understanding of which should be required of all house of worship leaders.

Focus of the Orientation:

A basic introduction to terms, concepts and best practices for all/selected tip sheets:

- Terms and systems religious leaders need to know in times of crisis
- Roles and responsibilities during each phase of the disaster lifecycle
- Organizations and key partnerships critical to religious leaders
- Mitigation education, preparedness training and advocacy best practices
- Basic orientation to key relief and recovery roles/human services for houses of worship

Disaster Tip Sheet Training (Three hours or Full day)

The goal of the Tip Sheet trainings is to provide religious leaders and/or their partners with a detailed orientation to the disaster lifecycle and leadership roles as well as instruction on best practices, strategic partnerships and skill development (training/certification) resources

Focus of the Training:

A detailed disaster Tip Sheet orientation and overview of instruction/skill development best practices recommended for religious leaders during each phase of the disaster lifecycle:

- Orientation and use of terms and systems religious leaders use/access in times of crisis
- Instruction on religious leaders' roles/responsibilities throughout the disaster lifecycle
- Overview of key organizations/partnerships critical to religious leaders
- Detailed instruction on best practices, services and trainings for religious leaders
